

News & updates

The latest news from the Companies Office is available here including media statements, press releases and public notices.

You can also check out what the options are for following us online.

News & media centre

Find out what's new at the New Zealand Companies Office.

What's new

Public notices

If a company has failed to comply with their filing requirements or, have requested to be removed from the Companies Office Register, the Registrar must give public notice in the NZ Gazette of the intention to remove companies from the Register.

Follow us online

The Companies Office has a range of features and services you may be interested in that extend beyond the main Companies Office website.

MED Media Centre

The latest news, media statements and press releases relating to the Companies Office are available here.

News related content
