

STRATEGIC PROCUREMENT OUTLOOK

Archives New Zealand

Period Covered:	1 July 2010 – 30 June 2011
Last Updated:	26 May 2010

Mission

Archives New Zealand, Te Rua Mahara o te Kāwanatanga is the official guardian of New Zealand's public archives. We gather, store and protect an extremely wide range of material. Our holdings include the originals of the Treaty of Waitangi, government documents, maps, paintings, photographs and film.

The Public Records Act 2005 sets the framework for contemporary recordkeeping across government and Archives New Zealand works with government agencies to administer the Act

Policies & Programmes

Archives New Zealand works to ensure records of long-term value are kept permanently and people have access to these records.

Our organisation's outcomes are:

- full and accurate records are kept by public sector agencies
- public archives are preserved and well managed
- public archives are accessible and used
- the archiving community is coordinated and well led

Overarching Purchasing Objectives

Archives New Zealand main purchasing objective is:

- to obtain the best value for money and to achieve Archives New Zealand's purpose and strategic priorities
