

STRATEGIC PROCUREMENT OUTLOOK

Period Covered:	1 July 2010 – 1 July 2011
Last Updated:	15 May 2010

Mission

New Zealand Police is the lead agency responsible for reducing crime and enhancing community safety. We provide policing services 24 hours a day and operate from more than 400 community-based police stations around the country.

New Zealand Police operate by land, sea and air, and with more than 11,000 staff we respond to more than 600,000 emergency 111 calls each year.

New Zealand Police vision is safer communities together.

The New Zealand Police mission is to be a world-class police service working in partnership with citizens and the community to prevent crime and road trauma, to enhance public safety and to maintain law and order.

Policies & Programmes

The New Zealand Police strategic plan to 2010 focuses on three strategic goals:

- Community reassurance
- Policing with confidence
- Organisational development

Details of the policies and programmes that support these goals are available on the NZ Police Website. www.police.govt.nz

Overarching Purchasing Objectives

The New Zealand Police's main purchasing activities relate to:

- Corporate services supporting the efficient use of resources throughout the organisation
- Police specific law enforcement equipment
- Construction, renovation and maintenance of buildings and facilities

- IT infrastructure and support including radio communication.
