

Procurement reform

About the reform

The Government Procurement Reform is an ambitious four year programme to transform New Zealand government procurement performance.

Reform presentations and papers

Cabinet papers and presentations

Procurement Reform video interviews

Watch our updates on the Reform Programme on You Tube.

Consultation

This page will be used when we are seeking submissions on future documents and reviews.

Governance

The initial structure, designed to support the development phase of the Reform, was reviewed at the end of 2010 and updated to support implementation and embedding of Reform initiatives.

Job opportunities

All current vacancies within the Government Procurement Solutions group are posted on the MED website.

Noticeboard

You can find out what GPS has been up to, what to expect in the coming weeks, comings and goings and other useful information in the Noticeboard.

Upcoming presentations

From time to time the Government Procurement Solutions team, within the Ministry of Economic Development, run briefing sessions for agencies and suppliers. The briefing sessions aim to update the procurement community on the Government Procurement Reform Programme, focussing on key work that may impact on agencies and suppliers.